DAMAGE TO COTTON CROP.

Great Staple of the South Badly Injured by Storm.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 17.—Reports from the southern and southwestern sections of the state indicate that torrential rains have been general there and that the damage to cotton is great and widespread.

At Poulan six inches of rain has fallen within forty hours, and at Pelham and Meigs, Mitchell county, eleven inches fell in two days.

From Meigs comes the report that great damage to crops has caused destruction and that merchants are canceling their orders for merchandise.

At Albany 5.61 inches of rain fell in forty hours. The downpour seems to have been general, and the country is flooded, overflowing and damaging railroads and country roads, besides the injury to crops.

Cotton Mills to Start Up.

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 17.—It is announced at the Pemberton cotton mills here that the plant will be started in full on Monday next. The mills have been closed three weeks on account of shortage in cotton. The Methuen mills in Methuen, which have been shut down for a similar period and for the same reason, will also resume on Monday.

Canal Improvement in Germany. Hamburg, Sept. 17.—The senate has decided to expend $2,000,000 on the improvement of the Elbe channel and the railroad terminals.
